

Chief Deputy Clerk of Circuit Court is Honored for Outstanding Service

City of Winchester County of Frederick

Debbie Payne, who is the Chief Deputy Clerk for the City of Winchester Circuit Court, was recently honored by the City of Winchester for her outstanding service to the community. She received the Barton Hero Award that recognizes an individual or group of people who go "above and beyond the call of duty in service to our community."

Debbie has worked in the City of Winchester Circuit Court Clerk's Office since 1986, and as this award demonstrates, she is a vital member of the circuit court clerk's staff.

Debbie's example of leadership and community commitment provides a living testimony of the important role that the Circuit Court Clerk's Office plays in local government, in state government and in communities throughout Virginia.

Circuit Court
VIRGINIA

